The U.S. Treasury has announced the final details of the special guarantee program for U.S. registered market funds. Columbia Management plans to pursue participation by the Prime, Tax-Exempt and Munic Money Market Mutual Funds in the program and is proceeding with the necessary application process.

The guarantee only applies to investors in the Fund as of the close of business on September 19, 2008 to an amount equal to the lesser of the amount in the Fund at September 19, 2008 and the date on which no longer maintains a constant net asset value of $1.00 per share. The guarantee payment would be equal any shortfall between the amount received by an investor in a liquidation and $1.00 per share. The program not be subject to any per account limit. More details on the Treasury Guarantee Program are available at <http://www.ustreas.gov/press/releases/hp1163.htm>.

Columbia Management's money market mutual funds have always transacted at $1.00 per share and continue to do so. Columbia money market mutual funds have never broken the $1.00 stated price, however, the guarantee that such price stability will be achieved in the future.

An investment in money market mutual funds is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Although money market mutual funds seek to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in money market mutual funds.

Please read and consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses for any fund carefully before investing.
