CITI RECRUITS CANADIAN PUBLIC SECTOR HEAD FOR GLOBAL TRANSACTION SERVICES BUSINESS

OTTAWA – Citi is pleased to announce the addition of David Gourlay to its Global Transaction Services (GTS) team, based in Ottawa. As Public Sector Head for Canada, Mr. Gourlay will establish and grow this business line into Canada, leveraging Citi's significant global Public Sector footprint.

Mr. Gourlay has more than a decade of experience in the public sector and has held roles with the Government of Canada and the City of Ottawa. Most recently, Mr. Gourlay was the Director of Business Development Applications for the Canadian public sector at Oracle. Mr. Gourlay holds a B.S.S. in Political Science from Carleton University and an Honours Standing in Political Science from the University of New Brunswick. He was a recipient of the Ottawa Business Journal's "40 Under 40" award in 2009.

"We are excited about the possibilities that Mr. Gourlay's experience brings to us in this area," said John Landry, Managing Director and Head of GTS in Canada. "Around the world, the public sector segment is key to our GTS business and we look forward to growing this part of our business in Canada."

"It is exciting to be joining Citi's GTS team at a time of such growth and expansion," said Mr. Gourlay. "I look forward to what our team will accomplish in supporting Canadian public sector organizations in the financial transaction sector."

Global Transaction Services, a division of Citi's Institutional Clients Group, offers integrated cash management, trade, and securities and fund services to multinational corporations, financial institutions and public sector organizations around the world. With a network that spans more than 100 countries, Citi's Global Transaction Services supports over 65,000 clients. As of the third quarter of 2010, it held on average $340 billion in liability balances and $12.4 trillion in assets under custody.

Citi currently employs more than 4,600 individuals in a range of consumer and institutional businesses across Canada.
