\(^{(2)}\) Includes countries and jurisdictions.

\(^{(3)}\) As of September 30, 2016.
Key Execution Priorities

- Deepening Relationships with Target Clients
  - Continuing to hone target client strategy
  - Leveraging core operating relationships (e.g., TTS, Securities Services) as platform “backbone”
  - Investing to support leading franchises and narrow wallet share gaps in certain products (e.g., Equities, Investment Banking)

- Leveraging Scale Advantages Across Global Network
  - Unique global network provides differentiated service to multinational corporate and investor clients
  - Consolidating volumes as clients seek to streamline and optimize operating relationships
  - Capturing adjacent revenue opportunities (e.g., Markets)

- Using Technology to Automate & Simplify Operations
  - ICG infrastructure scaled appropriately to absorb additional volumes without significant incremental cost
  - Seeking to automate and simplify processes for additional productivity savings
  - Technology-driven solutions

Well capitalized with unique global network and strong franchise

Note: TTS: Treasury and Trade Solutions.
Citi operates in 97 markets\(^{(1)}\) and serves clients in > 160 markets.

Note:
(1) Includes countries and jurisdictions.
Client-Led Strategy

Citi’s target client is a sophisticated multinational corporation, public sector entity, financial institution or global investor with a significant wallet for financial products and services.

Target Client Base

- Developed market multinationals expanding into EM
- Emerging market champions growing beyond their home market / region
- Financial institutions and global investors
- Public sector entities

Network is a Competitive Advantage with Complex Clients

Corporate Client Example
(Marginal Contribution per Corporate Client)

- 2015 Average Revenues / Target Market Corporate Client

Coverage universe reduced from over 30,000 to ~14,000 target clients today.
