

Political Activities Statement Trade Associations

Citi is a member of industry trade associations representing both the financial services industry and the broader business community. These organizations provide venues for important discussion regarding public policy issues and opportunities to advocate for common business interests. Our participation in these groups does not imply that Citi necessarily agrees with every position these associations take. The following are the principal U.S. and international trade and business associations in which Citi has a membership:

- American Bankers Association and state affiliates
- Asociacion de Bancos de Mexico
- Asociacion Mexicana de Administradores de Fondos Para El Retiro
- UK Finance Association
- Business Roundtable
- Consumer Bankers Association
- Financial Services Forum
- Bank Policy Institute
- Global Financial Markets Association and affiliates SIFMA, AFME, ASIFMA
- Institute of International Finance
- International Capital Markets Association
- International Swaps and Derivatives Association
- Managed Funds Association
- Partnership for New York City
- The CityUK
- The Clearing House
- US Chamber of Commerce

When Citi participates in a tax-exempt organization that writes and endorses model legislation, we will disclose that information on our website.

Updated: February 2019