

2025 Citi
Political Engagement Report

Introduction

As a global company, Citi is subject to extensive laws, rules, and regulations that impact revenues and operating expenses. Because of the potential impact public policies can have on our business, employees, and customers, Citi engages with policymakers to advance and protect the company's interests globally. Citi's full statement on political activities is available online at Citigroup.com.

The Government Affairs team works closely with Citi's core businesses and functions to advocate the company's interests through direct contact with government officials or indirectly through trade and business associations. In the U.S., Citi's Political Action Committees also support candidates that understand the issues affecting the company's businesses.

This Report contains information regarding Citi's advocacy activities, principal trade and business association memberships, and political contributions for the calendar year 2025.

Advocacy/Lobbying

United States Lobbying

In 2025, Citi reported federal advocacy (lobbying) expenditures of $5.36 million. The company lobbied on matters regarding financial services and banking, bank capital rules, credit card pricing, cyber security, tax policy, digital assets policy, trade policy, geopolitical issues, and sanctions/investment restrictions.

In the states, Citi advocated on matters impacting financial services and banking, privacy and artificial intelligence proposals, tax policy, credit card policies, and HR/employment issues.

International Advocacy

Outside the U.S., Citi's advocacy efforts vary by country and span across multiple financial services industry matters, including, but not limited to banking, securities, and financial services related issues, cross border data issues, digital assets, bank taxes, sanctions, trade policies.

Compliance

Citi complies with international, national, state, and local laws concerning lobbying registration and reporting. At the U.S. federal level, quarterly lobbying disclosures are filed with the U.S. Congress disclosing Citi's federal lobbying expenditures and the issues lobbied. To review our U.S. quarterly filings, visit the Office of the Clerk of House of Representatives, the Secretary of the Senate, or search for "Citigroup Washington, Inc." in the Registrant Name field on LDA.gov. State and local, and international disclosure websites are listed on Citigroup.com.

2025 U.S. Political Contributions

Employee Political Action Committees

One of the most important political engagement tools we have continued to be Citi's employee-funded political action committee — Citi PAC. Through Citi PAC, we are better positioned to advocate on issues that impact our business, our colleagues, and the communities we serve across the country.

Financial support for Citi PAC comes solely through voluntary contributions from eligible employees who share the common interest of supporting Citi's efforts in the political process.

We evaluate Citi PAC support to candidates based on the following criteria:

- Support of business issues important to Citi;
- Position on a committee with jurisdiction over policy issues important to Citi, or elected leadership position;
- Representation of a state or district where Citi has a significant employee presence;
- Character and integrity; and
- Demonstrated commitment to bipartisanship, governing and protecting democratic institutions.

Description of Contribution Limits

Citi PAC–Federal Contribution Limits

Citi PAC–Federal makes contributions to federal candidates, national party committees and Federal Leadership PACs. Federal Leadership PACs are permitted to accept donations from individuals and other PACs up to $5,000 per calendar year. Leadership PACs are established by a federal officeholder but are used to support other candidates for federal office. Citi PAC–Federal does not make contributions to state or local candidates, state or local committees, or state or local incumbents running for federal office.

The limits for the Citi PAC–Federal are listed below:

- $5,000 per election to a federal candidate's campaign committee. That means $5,000 may be given for the candidate's primary and $5,000 for the general election, for a total of $10,000 per election cycle.
- $15,000 per calendar year to a national party committee: Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC), Democratic National Committee (DNC), Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC), National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC), National Republican Senatorial Committee (NRSC), Republican National Committee (RNC).
- $5,000 per year to an incumbent's leadership PAC.

Citi PAC–State Contribution Limits

Contribution limits within the states and municipalities can vary greatly, from $100 per election to $50,000 per election. Citi PAC–State makes contributions, where permitted by law, to state and local officials, state political party committees, state leadership PACs, and national state legislative organizations.

Corporate Contributions

Citi may contribute corporate funds to state or local candidate campaign committees in jurisdictions where such activities are permitted. Citi may use corporate funds for independent expenditures which are contributions that expressly advocate election or defeat of candidates for office and are not made in cooperation with, or at the suggestion of, the candidate or his/her campaign or its agents or a political party or its agents. The company may also use corporate funds for ballot initiatives that may materially affect business operations.
