Citi Named Japan's Best International Bank and Japan's Best Investment Bank for DCM by Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2025

Tokyo – Citi has been named Japan's Best International Bank and Japan's Best Investment Bank for DCM by Euromoney. Euromoney, a leading global financial markets magazine, at its annual Awards for Excellence recognizes the best in banking across key areas that are most important to a bank's key stakeholders, clients, board, and executive management teams. The period of consideration for the awards was the 2024 calendar year.

"This double recognition from Euromoney underscores our team's relentless dedication to providing worldclass solutions for Japanese corporates, financial institutions and public sector clients," said Robert Nakamura, Citi Country Officer and Banking Head for Japan. "We are grateful to our clients for their trust and to our colleagues for consistently raising the bar. We will continue to invest in talent, technology, and product breadth so we remain the partner of choice in a rapidly changing global market."

Citi Japan supports clients through its integrated banking, markets, and services business, with unrivalled global network banking capabilities. The franchise helps Japanese multinationals expand internationally and enables inbound investment into Japan by multinational companies and institutional investors.

In its 30th edition, the 2025 Euromoney Awards once again recognized Citi's worldwide franchise with a record 52 global, regional, and local market awards, building on last year's forty-one-win haul. This year's awards include CEO Jane Fraser's "Banker of The Year" award. This continued recognition highlights Citi's unwavering presence as the pre-eminent banking partner for clients with cross-border needs.

In its 30th edition, the 2025 Euromoney Awards recognized Citi as:

- The World's Best Investment Bank for Financing
- The World's Best Investment Bank for Debt Capital Markets (DCM)
- The World's Best for Research
- The World's Best Digital Bank for Large Corporates

Citi also received multiple regional and local market awards, including:

- Africa's Best Investment Bank for Financing
- Asia's Best Investment Bank for DCM
- Central and Eastern Europe's Best Investment Bank
- Latin America's Best Bank for Large Corporates
- North America's Best Investment Bank
- The Middle East's Best Investment Bank for M&A
