Citi Named Japan's Best International Bank and Japan's Best Investment Bank for M&A by Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2026

TOKYO -- Citi has been named Japan's Best International Bank and Japan's Best Investment Bank for M&A by Euromoney. Euromoney, a leading global financial markets magazine, through its annual Awards for Excellence, recognizes the best in banking across key areas that are most important to a bank's key stakeholders, clients, board and executive management teams. The period of consideration for the awards was the 2025 calendar year.

Robert Nakamura, Citi Country Officer and Banking Head for Japan, said: "This recognition reflects the trust our clients place in us and the unwavering commitment of our team in Japan. As Japanese companies increasingly pursue strategic M&A and cross-border growth opportunities, Citi is uniquely positioned to support their ambitions through our global network, deep expertise and integrated platform across Banking, Markets and Services. We remain focused on delivering high-quality solutions that help clients navigate an increasingly dynamic global market and support Japan's growth."

The 2026 Euromoney Awards also recognized Citi's global franchise with 47 global, regional and country awards, including the prestigious World's Best Bank for Large Corporates and World's Best Bank for Securities Services awards. These recognitions underscore Citi's role as a leading banking partner for clients with increasingly complex cross-border and capital markets needs.
