

POLITICAL ENGAGEMENT REPORT

Being a responsible corporate citizen includes engagement in the political process as a part of strong Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practice. The potential impact of public policy on our business, employees, communities, and customers, is an important reason why Citi works to advance and protect the global business interests of the company. Citi's full statement on political activities is available online at Citigroup.com.

Citi's Global Government Affairs team works closely with business to advocate the company's interests through direct contact with government officials or in-directly through trade and business associations. Citi's Political Action Committees also support candidates that understand the important issues affecting the company's businesses.

This Report contains information regarding Citi's political contributions, lobbying activities and principal trade and business association memberships for the calendar year 2021.

United States Lobbying

In 2021, Citi reported federal lobbying expenditures of $4.2 million. The company lobbied on matters regarding financial services and banking, housing reform, cyber security, tax policy, trade policy, municipal finance, and cross-border data issues.

In the states, Citi lobbied on matters regarding the inclusion of banking and financial services as “critical infrastructure”, awareness of Citi’s commitment to closing the racial wealth gap, diversity and inclusion in the workplace, and broadening fair and equitable financial access.

International Lobbying

Outside the U.S., Citi lobbied on matters regarding financial services, including legislative and regulatory reform initiatives, bank surcharge and corporate tax, derivatives clearing, and the creation of green bonds and more efficient secondary markets.

Compliance

Citi complies with all international, national, state, and local laws concerning lobbying registration and reporting. At the U.S. federal level, quarterly lobbying disclosures are filed with the U.S. Congress disclosing Citi’s federal lobbying expenditures and the issues lobbied. To review our U.S. quarterly filings, visit the Office of the Clerk of House of Representatives or the Secretary of the Senate and search for “Citigroup Washington, Inc.” in the Registrant Name field. State and local, and international disclosure websites are listed on Citigroup.com
