

CCCIT: Gross Yield

Notes:

- The Gross Yield percentage is computed by dividing Gross Yield by the principal receivables balance as of the beginning of the due period. If there is a lump sum addition or lump sum removal during the due period, then the denominator is the weighted average principal receivables balance over the due period.
- This series is shown as a three-month moving average.
- Data is current through the August 2026 due period.