KENYA SUPPLEMENT
GLOBAL NON-EMPLOYEE & SUPPLIER PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Introduction

At Citibank, N.A. Kenya Branch ("Citi", "Citibank" or "we" or "our"), we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data. Personal data means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person.

It is important that you read this Supplement together with Citigroup Global Non-Employee & Supplier Privacy Notice ("Group Notice").

This Supplement describes additional provisions on how we collect, use, store or otherwise process personal data in accordance with the Data Protection Act, Chapter 411C, Laws of Kenya (the "Kenya DPA").

2. Additional ways on how personal data is collected

We collect your personal data from a variety of sources as more detailed in the Group Notice. In some circumstances, personal data may be collected indirectly from monitoring devices or by other means (for example, building and location access control and monitoring systems, CCTV, telephone logs and recordings, instant message logs and email and internet access logs), if and to the extent authorised by applicable laws.

Apart from personal information relating to you, you may also provide us with personal data of third parties. Before you provide such third-party personal information to us you must first inform these third parties of any such information that you intend to provide and of the processing to be carried out by us, as detailed in the Group Notice.

3. Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal data for a new purpose that is incompatible with the initial purpose for which the personal data was collected, we will seek your consent for use of your personal data for such new purpose.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

4. Transferring personal data outside Kenya

In addition to paragraph 9 of the Global Notice, we may transfer your personal data to other Citi entities, regulatory, prosecuting, tax and governmental authorities, courts and other tribunals, and other entities located in countries outside Kenya including countries which have different data protection standards to those which apply in Kenya. This includes transfers of personal data to the United States of America, the United Kingdom, Costa Rica, Singapore, India or any other country where the Staffing Office may be based.

When we transfer your personal data outside Kenya to other entities, we will ensure that they protect your personal data in accordance with the requirements under the Kenya DPA and that it is kept secure and receives at least a similar level of protection as that which it receives in Kenya. Personal data will be managed in United States, United Kingdom, Singapore, Costa Rica and India, where Citi has operations, supplier management and Staffing Office facilities or any other country where the Staffing Office may be based.

5. Data security

We have put in place appropriate physical and technical security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. We have also put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so under the Kenya DPA.

6. Kenya Contact

In addition to the contact in paragraph 12 of the Global Notice, you can exercise any of your rights and address any questions about how Citi processes your personal data to the email address provided in paragraph 14 of the Global Notice.
