

Document Title: Supplemental Provision – Tanzania
Complementing: IC Global Privacy Notice (updated 28 February 2024) and subsequent versions
Effective Date: 05 April 2024

This Supplemental Provision for Tanzania (“the Tanzania Supplement”) complements the Global Privacy Notice for Institutional Clients (the “Privacy Notice”) in relation to individuals (“you”) that are subject to the Personal Data Protection Act, 2022 of the United Republic of Tanzania and Regulations made under it (“Tanzania law”) in relation to the processing of personal information through our services, banking and markets operations.

If Your Organization is an entity that is a client of, or a recipient of services from Citibank Tanzania Limited, please refer to the Privacy Notice read together as one with this Tanzania Supplement.

Other than as specifically defined herein, all terms used in the Privacy Notice will have the same meaning used in the Tanzania law.

- Sensitive Personal Data (referred to as sensitive personal information in the Privacy Notice)

The definition of Sensitive Personal Information at page 3 of the Privacy Notice is extended to accommodate Sensitive Personal Data, which per the Tanzania law includes (a) genetic data, data related to children, data related to offences, financial transactions of the individual, security measure or biometric data; (b) if they are processed for what they reveal personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, affiliation, trade-union membership, gender and data concerning health or sex life; and (c) any personal data otherwise considered under the laws of the country as presenting a major risk to the rights and interests of the data subject.